 Whereas the Council of the County of Simcoe has purchased in England a new set of colors for the 35th Regiment (Simcoe Foresters) and the local Customs Collector has collected duty on the same, this Council is of the opinion that as the flags are entirely for the use of the Regiment and really the property of the Dominion of Canada, such goods not being made in Canada and not an article of merchandise this Council trusts you will favourably consider refunding the amount of the duty
