Evening Session

The Council met according to adjournment

His Honour Judge Ardagh held a Special Court and administered the declaration of office to the Warden elect.

His Honour Judge Ardagh addressed the Council at some length going back to the early days of his boy hood and calling the attention to the many changes which have taken place since the County was a District. He congratulated the Council on having all the old minutes of the Council (under his supervision) bound and placed on file in the Clerk's office for reference. He also referred to the History of the County just completed as an excellent work and one that would be greatly appreciated by the descendants of the early settlers who took such an active part to make this County what it is today and one of the most prosperous Counties in the Dominion

The Warden elect then took the Chair

Moved by Councillor Sanderson and seconded by Councillor Geo. Campbell and ordered That a vote of thanks be tendered to his Honour Judge Ardagh for his attendance this evening and his able address delivered to the Council assembled.

Council Chamber Record
June 6th 1910

The Council met in accordance and pursuant to adjournment
The Warden in the Chair
All members present except the Deputy Reeve of Midland
The minutes of the last session were read and confirmed The Warden addressed the Council in his usual fluent manner congratulating them on their robust appearance and on the fact that no emergency has occurred throughout the year. He feelingly referred to the decease of His Most Gracious Majesty Edward VII a loss which will be felt not only by the Empire he governed but by the whole world at large, he also stated he was pleased to say that his successor His Most Gracious Majesty George V had already shown that he had the great ability of governing that his father and Grandmother had. He referred to several matters that would come before the Council and expressed the desire that the Council would show the same expeditious manner of conducting the County's business as they have shown the last two years

The Warden presented the following documents which were read
